Letter from Susan Boutros, Middle School and High School Principal

It was a pleasure seeing so many of you at the Family Picnic Day. The family picnic was a great success. It was a great opportunity for new families to be introduced into our community and for all the other families to catch up. It was a very casual get-together where families and friends shared food and participated in activities. The students also had a great time. They played soccer and volleyball with some of our parents and teachers. The PTA bake sale had many delicious cakes on sale. The goal for the PTA this year, is to reach out through different activities and help build the school community on and off campus.

The student council also has a big role in building our community. The elections for the High School Student Council were held in the quad yesterday after a whole week of campaigning. Saba Khan and Iman El-Mahdi ran for Student Council president. Hayam El Sanousi and Zhu Bole ran for
