Letter from the Superintendent, Mr. Greg Hughes

Dear Parents,

Next week we will be hosting our first Parent-Teacher Conferences of the 2012/2013 school year. This is always a wonderful event because the great deal of hard work that has taken place over the past six weeks can be celebrated and the progress of each and every child can be put into its rightful context.

Far from being a one-way monologue where teachers talk and parents listen, we encourage parents to share their thoughts, their ideas and questions so that a true partnership can be established. Now that Engrade and Edmodo are up and running parents will already have a good indicator as to their child's progress, but nonetheless nothing is better than good old fashioned face-to-face talking.

We believe that having this conference a little bit earlier in
