Letter from the Superintendent, Bridget Davies

Dear KAS Community,

I hope your children are enjoying school and are into a good routine of coming to campus every day.

I would like to take this opportunity to draw your attention to the importance of all students arriving on time to school. Although we know there are many complicating factors in Khartoum to being punctual, I would ask you to prioritize this aspect of the day.

For younger students the beginning of the school day is a crucial time in many ways. Teachers have a set routine which takes place as soon as children enter the classroom; this helps them to feel safe and settled. Moreover, in Elementary school often the important classes of reading, writing and mathemat-
